INTRODUCTION

This document is a compendium (or inventory) of all historical records found to date that mention one or more individuals with the surname of Kidd in Campbell County, Virginia from the time of its founding in 1781 through 1850. Because the city of Lynchburg was created from Campbell County in 1852, and because for a period of time prior to that Lynchburg created records separate from the adjacent counties, including Campbell County, we've included Lynchburg records in this compilation.

We began the ambitious task of producing these documents for over twenty Virginia counties with several objectives:

1. To find virtually every existing record mentioning the surname of Kidd in these Virginia counties prior to 1850;
2. To analyze these records and ascertain (if possible) whether the individuals are descendants of the Thomas Kidd who arrived in the Virginia colony by 1648, and if so, their line of descent; and
3. To distinguish between proven, documented relationships and those which are widely shared and held to be accurate, but for which proof is minimal or non-existent.

CAMPBELL COUNTY and the CITY OF LYNCHBURG, and their records

Campbell County, Virginia was formed on 1 February 1782 from Bedford County. It is named after the Revolutionary War hero General William Campbell, who won fame at the 1780 Battle of Kings Mountain. The county seat is Rustburg. The earliest settlement in what is now Campbell County occurred about 1736 at Hat Creek, by a group of Scotch-Irish pioneers from Pennsylvania.

The Clerk of Circuit Court has marriage, divorce, land, tax, and probate records from 1782. The 1790 and 1800 federal censuses for this and all other Virginia counties do not survive.

The city of Lynchburg lies in the northwestern corner of Campbell County, nestled between Amherst, Bedford and Campbell Counties. Lynchburg became an Independent City in 1852.

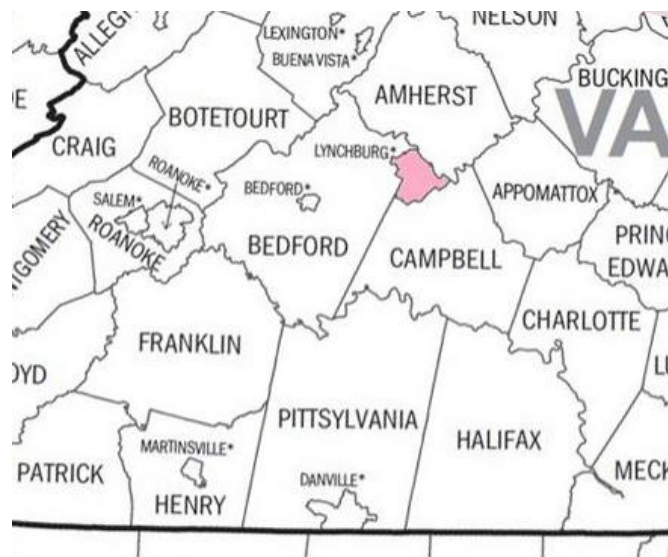

FIGURE: Depiction of the current-day boundaries of Campbell County and the Independent City of Lynchburg.

The Kidds of Lynchburg and Campbell County are a varied lot. Of the individuals who left records in Campbell County, only a few created enough records or were there long enough to enable us to determine their Kidd family connections. One reason may be that Lynchburg, given its size and central location in the state, was already a 19th century urban area with people migrating in, out, or through the area. We have included every Kidd record we found in this compilation, in the hope that some of them will prove useful to future researchers.

This tree can be found at: <https://www.ancestry.com/family-tree/tree/37652986/family>*

EXPLANATION OF THE GENERATIONAL NUMBERING SYSTEM WE USE

Before you get started, an explanation of the numbering system we have used in this document is in order: The number following an individual's name in this compilation indicates the number of generations relative to our common ancestor, Thomas1Kidd. Thus, for example, "George4 (Benjamin3, William2, Thomas1)" is short-hand for "George Kidd, 4 generations down from Thomas the immigrant, and the son of Benjamin3, grandson of William2, etc."

Again, the numbers used in this system refer to the generation of each named individual, relative to Thomas1 Kidd, the patriarch of our Kidd family.

Our Kidd ancestors favored several names, and repeated them in each generation; George, James and Benjamin were used in nearly every generation, in multiple branches of a family. In order to separate these individuals with shared names but in the same location and generation, we have arbitrarily listed them as James5a, James5b, etc.

AND NOW, TO THE KIDDS OF LYNCHBURG & CAMPBELL COUNTY, VIRGINIA!

AN ALPHABETICAL LISTING OF ALL CAMPBELL COUNTY KIDDS BY GIVEN NAME, THEN BY CHRONOLOGICAL APPEARANCE

The information here is freely shared with Kidd family researchers for their personal use. We ask that you credit the KiddRoots.org website when using this information, and that you use it in its original form. Thank you.

This document is a compilation of all citations of individuals with the surname of Kidd in Campbell County, Virginia from 1782 to 1850. Within it, individuals appear in alphabetical order, by their given name. Entries for each individual are arranged in chronological order, and where more than one person has the same given name, we've attempted to distinguish between them by other factors, such as varying amounts of land, slaves or other property, etc. When that is not possible, we've left the data elements under one name, while recognizing that those facts may represent more than one person.

Remember: names in RED FONT have been added to the MSX Kidds Tree at Ancestry.com

ADELINE KIDD, the daughter of William and Nancy O. Kidd of Lynchburg, Virginia<sup>1</sup>

Born abt 1804<sup>2</sup>

Married (1) or had children with George W. Baltimore<sup>3</sup>

Married (2) Robert S. Fields on 28 Feb 1831 in Lynchburg, VA

Died 19 July 1867 in Louisville, KY

1830 – The 1830 federal census includes the following Kidds, all in Lynchburg City:

p. 329, line 4 from bottom, Lewis B. Kidd: 1M 5-9, 1 10-14 & 1 50-59; 1F 10-14, 2 15-19, 1 50-59 and 1 60-69;

p. 330, line 2 Delpha Kidd: 1FWM 20-29; 1F 70-79

line 3 Nancy Kidd: 1M 5-9 & 1 10-14; 1F 5-9, 1-10-14 & 1 30-39

line 5 Adline Kidd: 1F 15-19, 1 20-29 & 1 30-39; no slaves line 6 William Kidd: 1M<5, 1 5-9 & 1 40-49; 1F 5-9, 2 15-19. 1 20-29, & 1 40-49;

three slaves

line 9 Daniel Kidd: 1 M 30-39

1831 – On 28 February 1831, a marriage bond was issued in Lynchburg, Virginia for Robert S.

Fields and Adeline Baltimore.<sup>4</sup> The bondsman was William Kidd; his relationship to this couple was not stated, but this is most likely William C. Kidd, her brother.

On February 27 (one of these dates is in error) 1831, this marriage occurred in Lynchburg, conducted by Caleb Leach.<sup>5</sup>

<sup>1</sup> She's not named in Nancy O. Kidd's will. However, she is named in Ardelia (Kidd) Houghton's will as Ardelia's sibling, and the sibling of Edmund J. Kidd, who is named in Nancy O. Kidd's will as Nancy's deceased son.

<sup>2</sup> She is age 30-39 on the 1830 census. Her 1867 death record listed her age at death as 63.

<sup>3</sup> No marriage record has been found for this couple in Lynchburg City, Virginia Register of Marriages, 1805-1853, or elsewhere. George W. Baltimore appears on the 1827 Lynchburg VA PPTLs, and is the only Baltimore male found in Lynchburg in this time period. Ardelia's son William H. Baltimore was born Aug 1827.

We know from other records that the bride here was Adeline Kidd, the sister of Ardelia Kidd, and daughter of Nancy O. and William Kidd. But we don't know which William Kidd served as security for this marriage. Could this be her father? Or is this her brother William C. Kidd? If the latter, he would have been traveling between Lynchburg VA and Louisville KY at this time, because he was on the Louisville Tax Lists in 1830, but not 1831, and the 1832 Louisville Tax Lists are not extant. It seems most likely this is her brother William.<sup>6</sup>

1840-1860 – We've been unable to find Adeline or Robert S. Fields during this interval.

1856 – Adeline Fields and her son William H. Baltimore are named in the will of Ardelia O. (Kidd) Houghton, as her sister and her sister's son, respectively. See Ardelia's section in this compilation for more information.

1859 – On 18 January 1859, in Jefferson County Court, on the motion of William H. Baltimore, who made oath according to law, administration with the will annexed of Nancy O. Kidd, dec'd late of this county is granted him. Whereupon he gave bond with Adaline Field his security as required by law.<sup>7</sup>

1861 – Adeline Fields, widow of Robert, appears in the 1861 Louisville City Directory, living at 833 Seventh St.<sup>8</sup>

1866 – Adeline Fields, widow of Robert, appears in the 1866 Louisville City Directory, living at 367 West Madison.<sup>9</sup>

1867 – Adeline Fields died on 19 July 1867 in Louisville, KY at the age of 63 of apoplexy. Her death record says that she was born in Virginia, and at her death, resided in Louisville on Madison, between 15th and 16th. It states she was buried the following day in Eastern Cemetery.<sup>10</sup>

There is a headstone in Eastern Cemetery in Louisville, bearing the names Adaline Fields and Ardelia Baltimore on one face of that marker.<sup>11</sup> On another face of the same monument are the names: W. H. Baltimore, & M. A. Baltimore. William H. Baltimore was Adeline's son, and Martha Ann Baltimore was his wife.

There are no other inscriptions on this headstone, but it most likely marks the grave of Adaline Kidd Fields and that of Adaline's daughter Ardelia by Adeline's presumed first husband George W. Baltimore, as well as William H. Baltimore and his wife.

<sup>6</sup> Adeline is named as the sister of Ardelia O. (Kidd) Houghton in Houghton's 1857 will, as is Adeline's son, William H. Baltimore. See Ardelia Kidd's section of this compilation.

Born ca 1792 in Amherst County<sup>14</sup>
Married Charity Willoughby in 1818 in Nelson County
Died 17 March 1870 in Nelson County

He left only three records (listed below) in Campbell County, VA. See our Nelson County compilation for more information on him and his ancestry.

1814 – an Alexander Kidd appears on the Campbell County PPTL in this year, along with Lewis B. Kidd; each is charged for their own tithe, and neither slaves nor horses.<sup>15</sup>

1820, 1829 – Alexander Kidd is named in a Lynchburg City Chancery Court suit titled Simon Crisp v Thomas Aldridge et al.<sup>16</sup>

This is a complex suit in which Crisp is suing Aldridge over a slave named Peter or Jordan, age more or less 10 years old, valued at $300-$350, whom Crisp hired out to Alexander Kidd in 1820. Joshua Willoughby gave a deposition in this case, supplying the above information.

Alexander Kidd gave a deposition in this case on 8 May 1829, in which he confirmed that he had the slave boy in 1820, and that he surrendered said slave to Landon S.

Gowing/Going in December of that year. The defendant Aldridge had moved to Alabama during the suit.

We have found no other records for a man by this name in Campbell County or Lynchburg for the period 1782-1860. Given the mention of Joshua Willoughby above, these citations most likely are for Alexander Kidd Sr. of Nelson County, Virginia.

ARDELIA O. KIDD, sister of William C. Kidd, and daughter of William and Nancy O. Kidd<sup>17</sup>

Born 15 October 1808<sup>18</sup>

Married five times; no children

Died 13 July 1857 in St. Louis, MO

1825 – On 21 April 1825, a marriage bond was issued in Lynchburg city for Joseph Cohen and Ardellia O. Kidd. The bondsman was William Kidd and the witness was James Benagh.<sup>19</sup> On the same day, Joseph Cohen and Ardillia O. Kidd were married in Lynchburg by the pastor of the Lynchburg Baptist Church.<sup>20</sup>

1832 – On 12 May 1832, Joseph Cohen signed his last will and testament in the City of Lynchburg. In it he devised to his beloved wife, Ardelia Cohen “all my personal estate in absolute right, except what may be recovered from the Government of the United States, or from the State of Virginia on account of military service rendered by my late father in the War of the Revolution.”

Of his real estate, he devised one equal moiety to Ardelia, one to his daughter Mary. In his will, he gave power of attorney to his brother, William Cohen to pursue his claim for their father's military service. He signed (with an X) this will, in the presence of S. J. Wiatt, Samuel Stanley and John Dawson(?).

His will was proved in Lynchburg Hustings Court on 2 July 1832 on the oaths of two of the witnesses to it, and was recorded.<sup>21</sup>

An inventory and appraisal of his personal estate, including two enslaved people, was presented in Court on 3 September 1832, and entered into record. The total value of his personal estate was $580.57.<sup>22</sup>

On 22 December 1832, a marriage contract was entered into between John S. Turner of the first part, Ardelia O. Cohen of the second part, and Robert Cohen of the third part, all of the Town of Lynchburg. Whereas a marriage is intended to be had and solemnized between sd. Turner and sd. Cohen, and whereas sd. Cohen is possessed of considerable estate, real and personal, being the same estate devised to her by the last will and testament of her late husband, Joseph Cohen, dec'd, of record in the Hustings Court of Lynchburg, the parties have agreed that said property be placed in trust administered by Robert Cohen for the sole benefit of said Ardelia Cohen. The trust included a tract of land in Lynchburg; two slaves, Pilip (sic) and Letty; household and kitchen furniture, utensils, etc.; and livestock. Each of the parties signed this deed, and it was admitted to record on this date.<sup>23</sup>

On the same day, John S. Turner and Ardelia O. Cohen were married in Lynchburg City, Virginia. Security was Griffin L. Leckie, and D. Rodie served as a witness to this marriage.<sup>24</sup>

1837 – On 19 September 1837, the assessors appointed by the Judge of the Circuit Superior Court in the case of The James River & Kanawha Canal Company vs. James S. Turner and A. D. (sic) Turner reported back to the Court, stating that they had met with the Defendants on this date, upon the lands of the said John S. Turner and A. D. Turner in the Town of Lynchburg, which the Company above has proposed to condemn for their use. The assessors reported that the condemnation would require the destruction of three wooden houses and would result in the need for additional fencing; they assessed these damages resulting from the condemnation would amount to $350.<sup>25</sup> It is not evident whether the condemnation proceeded from this record.

On 22 December 1837, John S. Turner and Adelia (sic) O. Turner his wife and Samuel J. Wyatt, Trustee for the latter, sold to Willis Bradley for $275, paid to Adelia O. Turner or to her Trustee, a tract of land in Campbell County on the west side of Rooks(?) Road (detailed description of the parcel in metes and bounds, omitted here) adjoining Meredith, Stephen

This deed was signed by J. S. Turner, A. O. Turner and S. A. Wiatt, Trustee.<sup>26</sup>

1839 – On 12 April 1839, William Kidd and Candace his wife of the city of Louisville sold to Samuel J. Wyatt, Trustee of Ardalia O. Turner of the town of Lynchburg for $500, the same being part of the trust fund of the said Ardalia O. held by the said Samuel J. as Trustee a lot or parcel of ground lying on the south side of James River in the Corporation of Lynchburg ... (description of land) ... it being the same property conveyed to the said William Kidd by deed from Meredith Lambeth, Trustee on 7 March 1828, for the sole use of the said Ardalia O. Turner in conformity with the provisions of a certain Deed of Marriage Articles entered into by Ardalia O., then Ardalia O. Cohen and Robert Cohen, bearing the date of 22 December 1832.

This deed was signed by “Wm C. Kidd” and “Cy Kidd” and proved in Court in Jefferson County, Kentucky.<sup>27</sup>

[In 1842, William C. Kidd’s entries on the Louisville, KY Tax List show that in addition to paying his own taxes, he paid, or at least reported the value of the property of “Mrs. Turner” and Nancy O. Kidd.<sup>28</sup>

1842 – On 16 January 1842, Ardelia O. Turner and Nicholas Ward were married in Lynchburg City, VA. Security was Patrick Conlin.<sup>29</sup>

1845 – On 16 June 1845, Nicholas Ward and his wife Ardelia Ward of the Town of Lynchburg entered into a Deed of Separation, as follows:

Whereas various causes of dissention and difference have heretofore arisen & existed between Nicholas Ward and Ardelia O. Ward which have for a long time disturbed and in fact destroyed their happiness as husband and wife, and the said Nicholas and Ardelia are satisfied that the causes ... are permanent and incurable, and the said Ardelia has lately instituted proceedings in the Circuit Superior Court of Law and Chancery for the Town of Lynchburg against the said Nicholas in order to procure a decree against him for alimony and a divorce, and since the institution of the same, they have become satisfied that it will promote the peace and happiness of the parties for the said proceedings to be dismissed, and for the parties to enter into a voluntary agreement for their separation, and the separate support and maintenance of the said Ardelia, and the said Nicholas and Ardelia have in fact agreed hereafter to live separately and apart, and the said Nicholas has agreed on his part to relinquish and convey to Henry Dunnington in Trust for the said Ardelia all his right, title and interest in the real estate of Ardelia, and also to convey to the said Dunnington in Trust for the same purpose a Negro woman named Rachel and her future increase, and also the household and kitchen furniture not at the residence of Nicholas and Ardelia ... in order to provide for the separate support and maintenance of Ardelia, and the said Ardelia on her part in consideration thereof has agreed to relinquish to Nicholas her dower rights in and to a lot of ground on Diamond Hill near said town and the buildings which he is erecting thereon, and also her right, title and interest that she has or might have against the real personal or other estate of the said Nicholas and the said Nicholas and Ardelia have further agreed that both Nicholas and Ardelia shall pay their separate debts.

Nicholas signed his name to this agreement, while Ardelia signed with an X.<sup>30</sup>

1849 – On 10 July 1849, Ardelia O. Ward of St. Louis, Missouri, party of the first part, entered into a Marriage Contract, along with James Snow of the same place, party of the third part, and George W. Barnes, party of the second part in St. Louis, Missouri.<sup>31</sup>

In this lengthy document, Ardelia is establishing a Trust, administered by George W. Barnes, to contain her separate property she currently owns, shielding it from her husband-to-be, John Snow. I've transcribed the first section verbatim, in order to demonstrate how thorough the indenture was:

“Whereas Ardelia O. Ward is possessed of certain personal estate, to wit, two female slaves, known and described as follows: the older called Lucretia, a Black woman of medium height and about twenty-eight years old, and the younger called Caroline, a bright Mulatto female child, the daughter of the said Lucretia, & now in her 3rd year. And Certain household & kitchen furniture (a long, detailed list, omitted here) and utensils and implements necessary for family use in the keeping of house. Also Certain real estate, to wit a parcel of land in the Town of Lynchburg on the James River Kanawha Canal at or near the Lynchburg House to which said Ardelia derived title from her former husband, Joseph Cohen, and now held in Trust for the benefit of said Ardelia by one Henry Dunnington of Lynchburg by virtue of a deed of separation from Nicholas Ward, the late husband of said Ardelia Ward, to the said Ardelia, and an estate for years in that later parcel known and described as follows, to wit, in the City of St. Louis, Missouri in Block number 262 (detailed description, omitted here) to which said Ardelia derived title by virtue of a lease for the term of ten years from September 1, 1844 from John A. Fallow to said Ardelia and whereas it hath been understood and agreed by and between the said parties of the first and third parts that whatsoever property or estate whether real or personal which the party of the first part now hath or may hereafter acquire or become entitled to in her own right either by gift, devise, descent, distribution or otherwise ...be duly granted, assigned and conveyed in the trust, thereby secured for her separate use and benefit and placed beyond the control, reach or management of the said third party ...and not be subject of or liable for his present or future debts, responsibilities, etc.”

The agreement stipulates that if Ardelia dies after the solemnization of their said marriage, that the contents of the trust shall be transferred and paid out by the Trustee according to the directions left by Ardelia in writing, witnessed by at least two credible witnesses.

This agreement was signed by all three parties on 12 July 1849.

This lengthy contract was written in the St. Louis County Marriage Register, rather than in a Deed Book. Interestingly, the entry, though four pages in length, does not include the date or other details of their marriage.

1850 – On 10 July 1850, Ardelia O. Ward entered into a Marriage Contract with Ward Houghton, in order to protect her real and personal property that she possessed at the time of this (her

The official date of the 1850 federal census was 1 June 1850. But the marriage contract below had not occurred by this date. However, their enumeration occurred on 23 July 1850.

1857 – Ardelia O. Houghton died testate on 13 July 1857 in St. Louis, MO.

Her will, which she signed in St. Louis on 8 July 1856, expressed her desire that a burial plot be secured by her executor, either in St. Louis or in Louisville, Jefferson County, KY, where she could be buried, along with her mother (not specifically named in this document), her sister Adeline Fields (recently deceased) and her son William Baltimore could be interred, and that her two brothers, Edmund J. Kidd and Josiah P. Kidd, “who are dead and buried in or near the city of Louisville be removed to said lot to be purchased at my expense out of my estate.”

In her will, she made the following specific bequests: To her niece, Maria Virginia Gross (evidently the daughter of Ardelia’s sister, Cara Ann, who married Andrew Gross), she devised her gold watch, two gold chains, and all her jewelry; to said niece and to her (Ardelia’s) sister, Adaline Fields, she devised all her clothing; to her sister Adaline Fields all the residue and remainder of her estate for her lifetime, and at her death to go to Adaline’s son, William H. Baltimore in fee simple.

In her will, she also emancipated her slave Lucretia at her death, and made provisions for Lucretia’s financial assistance as needed, “so that she may be comfortable and not in need or want.”

And she made a financial bequest to the Christian Church, “of which I am a member.”

She appointed William E. Jamison of St. Louis to serve as her executor.

Witnesses to her will were Theodore P. Greene and Robert S. Voorhis.

The will was proved in St. Louis Court and recorded on 15 July 1857.<sup>33</sup>

Ardelia O. (Kidd) Houghton is buried in Eastern Cemetery in Louisville, KY. Her ornate headstone is one source of the dates of her birth (15 October 1808) and her death (13 July 1857).<sup>34</sup>

Regarding her desire that her siblings and at least one of her nephews be buried there:

There is a headstone bearing two names – Ardelia Baltimore and Adeline Fields – on one face of this monument.<sup>35</sup> We believe this is the headstone for Ardelia’s sister Adeline and Adeline’s daughter named after Ardelia.

This same monument, on another face of it, bears the names of W. H. Baltimore (Ardelia’s nephew) and M. A. Baltimore (likely his wife), with no other inscription.<sup>36</sup>

Findagrave.com has recorded these as two different markers; but close inspection of the two reveals that all these individuals are named on one marker.

Thus we feel confident that Ardelia's instructions were followed in this regard.

It is not possible to determine the proximity of these graves to each other on Findagrave.com.

Unfortunately, Eastern Cemetery has a long, sad history of neglect, abuse and over-burial. It is now estimated that there are over 100,000 individuals buried in 26,000 grave plots. All the original records of this cemetery are now in the hands of the University of Louisville, but are difficult to access.<sup>37</sup>

Several individuals with the surname of Kidd are also buried in this cemetery, but none of them appear to be part of the family of William and Nancy O. Kidd.

ARNOLD KIDD, possible brother to Richard Kidd

1798 – Campbell County February 1798 term. Arnold Kidd and Richard Kidd were bound out, according to law.<sup>38</sup> The names of their parents were not given.

1799 – Campbell County January 1799 term. Arnold Kidd was again bound out according to law.<sup>39</sup>

1801 – Campbell County February 1801 term. Arnold Kidd came into Court, acknowledged himself held in the sum of $60 and Saml. & Benjamin Schoolfield his securities in the same $30 each to be levied, etc upon the condition that Arnold Kidd keep the peace and be of good behaviour for one year and one day from this time.<sup>40</sup>

Note: In 1802, Richard Kidd was bound out to Saml. Schoolfield, so it may be that Arnold and Richard were brothers, bound to the same master.

1802, 1805, & 1809 – An Arnold Kidd appears on the Campbell County PPTLs these three years only during the period 1785-1814.<sup>41</sup> Each year he's taxed only for 1 WMT, with neither slaves nor horses.

1804 – Campbell County Marriage Bond, 4 December 1804, Arnold Kidd and Patsy Finch, daughter of John Finch. Thomas Steen, surety.<sup>42</sup> Their marriage occurred the same day.<sup>43</sup>

<sup>37</sup> An organization Friends of Eastern Cemetery, <https://friendsof-eastern-cemetery.com/> has been working to restore this long-abandoned Cemetery. An all-volunteer organization, it is overwhelmed with requests, with a backlog of months, at this writing (September 2024). Interestingly, the Findagrave memorial for Ardelia's ornate monument has detailed GPS coordinates for its location. It might be possible to use those coordinates to find Ardelia's grave, and then search the surrounding area in the hopes of finding this additional marker.

On 7 December 1804, Arnold Kidd of Campbell County entered into a deed of trust with John Thurmond of the same place in order to secure the payment of a debt owed to William Steen, due by bond executed on this date for the amount of £15; in doing so, he used one featherbed, bedstead and furniture, one walnut bureau and six Windsor chairs as collateral. This instrument bears the seals of Arnold Kidd and John Thurmond, so Arnold was evidently literate.<sup>44</sup>

1810 – An Arnold Kidd appears on the federal census in Amherst County, VA, p. 292, line 4:
Arnold Kidd 1WM 26-44; 3F<10 & 1 16-25.

He's not found in any other Amherst or Campbell County records, to our knowledge.

1814 – Arnold Kidd is listed under Lynchburg, Virginia US Army records, 1800-1815: “Arnold Kidd was a Private in the Artillery, 30 years old, occupation shoemaker, born Lynchburg, Virginia. He was 5’ 11” tall, grey eyes, brown hair and a dark complexion. He enlisted in Norfolk 6-8 April 1814, promoted to Corporal 1 Dec 1814, reduced 15 Feb 1815, discharged in Norfolk 22 March 1815. There is a pension record.”<sup>45 46</sup>

Despite the statement above, we have been unable to find a pension record for him in the War of 1812 Pension Files or in the War of 1812 Pension Application Files Index.

ARTHUR KIDD

1802 – The Campbell County Court Order Books contain just one mention of Arthur Kidd, in the October 1802 Term:
County Levy Year 1802, October. To John Carter (?) for advertising...& advertising against Arthur Kidd.....$9.92.<sup>47</sup>
[This entry was very difficult to decipher, with several text insertions. The amount ($9.92) was substantial, in comparison to other ordered payments.]

No other records for Arthur Kidd have been found in Campbell County or Lynchburg from 1782-1850, to our knowledge.

BARNARD KIDD

1805 – A Barnard Kidd appears on the Campbell County PPTL only this single year, taxed only for one white male tithable. He doesn't appear any other year during the period 1785-1814.

BENJAMIN KIDD of Fluvanna County, Virginia

1795 – At their June 1795 Term, the Fluvanna County Court ordered that Stephen Seay, Benjamin Kidd, Benjamin Weaver Senr. and Joseph Wolling or any three of them appraise in Current money the slaves (if any) and personal estate of William Sadler, decd and return their

1816 – Three new Kidd males appear for the first time on the 1816 Campbell County PPTLs: Daniel, Elliott C. and Edmund Kidd, all taxed just for their own tithes. A fourth Kidd, Lewis P. (sic) Kidd, also appears on this list; this is likely the Lewis/Lewis B. Kidd that is also listed on these PPTLs in 1800, 1802, 1803, 1809-1811, 1813 and 1814.

1822 – On 28 April 1822, Daniel Kidd gave a deposition at John Hancock’s Tavern in Lynchburg, in the case of Samuel Schoolfield vs. William Sneed. These two men had been business partners in a tobacco stemming factory, and the suit involved the dissolution of that partnership.<sup>53</sup>

In his deposition, Kidd stated that he was in the employ of both men, that his job was to do whatever they asked of him, and that his usual work involved keeping the accounts of the stemming, weighing the tobacco, and paying the workers who did the stemming, according

DELPHIA KIDD, an early Kidd female in Campbell County, born between 1751-1760

Delphia Kidd is the oldest woman named Kidd found in Campbell County dating from the early 1800s. We do not know her relationship to the other Kidd families in the county, but she headed a household of eight individuals in 1810.

1810 – The 1810 federal census for Campbell County, VA lists the following Kidds, all in Lynchburg City:

p. 851, line 3 from bottom Lewis B. Kidd: 1WM 26-44

line 7 Delphia Kidd: 1WM<9 & 2 10-15; 1F<9, 2 16-25 & 4 >44; no slaves.

Daniel, Elliott C. and Edmund Kidd, all taxed just for their own tithes. A fourth Kidd, Lewis P. (sic) Kidd also appears on this list; this is likely the Lewis/Lewis B. Kidd that is also listed on these PPTLs in 1800, 1802, 1803, 1809-1811, 1813 & 1814.

This name is not found in any other Campbell County or Lynchburg records that we've found.

ELOISA KIDD

1837 – On 23 October 1837, a marriage bond was issued for Thomas P. Graffin and Eloisa Kidd. The bondsman was John S. Turner.<sup>59, 60</sup>

ELIOTT C. KIDD

1816 – Three new Kidd males appear for the first time on the 1816 Campbell County PPTLs: Daniel, Elliott C. and Edmund Kidd, all taxed just for their own tithes. A fourth Kidd, Lewis P. (sic) Kidd also appears on this list; this is likely the Lewis/Lewis B. Kidd that is also listed on these PPTLs in 1800, 1802, 1803, 1809-1811, 1813 & 1814.

1817 – The advertisement below appeared in the Richmond Enquirer on 20 May 1817:<sup>61</sup>

This name is not found in any other Campbell County or Lynchburg records that we've found. The man in the 1816 and 1817 records may not be the same person.

ELIZABETH KIDD(s)

There were at least two or three women named Elizabeth/Betsy Kidd in Campbell County:

1827 – On 23 June 1827, Jesse L. Beckham entered into a marriage bond in Lynchburg, Virginia for his marriage to Betsy Kidd. A John Kidd is listed as Betsy's guardian, indicating that the bride was likely still a minor; John Kidd was also security for this bond. Wm. Digges was the witness to the bond.<sup>62</sup>

1838 – On 6 February 1838, a marriage bond was issued to Wm. P. Worley (born 26 January 1817) and Kessuria Oliver. The bondsmen were Martha Worley (relationship not stated) and Elizabeth Kidd, mother.<sup>63</sup>

1860 – A Betsy Kidd, age 79, is found on the federal census in the Western District of Campbell County, Castle Craig P.O., a pauper living in the county Alms House.<sup>64</sup>

Married (1) Delilah F. Goodman in 1831 in Campbell County, VA, and (2) Mary C. “Polly” Agnew in December 1845 in Bedford County, VA.

Henry D. Kidd’s Family Bible record<sup>66</sup> is one of the most important records we’ve found regarding the Kidds of Campbell (and later Bedford) County, Virginia. This record lists the dates of birth and/or death for Henry, both his wives and many of his children.

This transcription also lists the birth dates of his parents (but does not name them), and the names and dates of birth of his siblings.<sup>67</sup> Based upon these records, along with the Buckingham County PPTLs cited below), we conclude that Henry D. Kidd was the eldest son of Henry Kidd of Buckingham County, appearing first as an unnamed son in his father’s household in 1830, then out on his own in 1832. His father died before the PPTL of 1833 (matching the date of death for Henry D.’s father listed in the Bible record). In 1834, Henry D. Kidd is listed by name on that year’s PPTL. Henry D. Kidd drops from the Buckingham County PPTLs in 1835, and that same year appears for the first time on the Campbell County PPTLs.

[Note: Several of Henry D. Kidd’s siblings, some already married, also moved to Campbell and Bedford Counties.]

1820 – Henry Kidd (Sr.) is listed on the 1820 Buckingham Co census, with the following household members: 1 WM under 10, 1 WM 26-44, 2 WF under 10, 1 WF 26-44. Slaves: 4 M under 14, 3 M 26-44, 1 F under 14, 2 F 26-44. Number of persons engaged in agriculture: 1.<sup>68</sup> Henry D. Kidd, born in 1812, is very likely the WM under 10 years of age here.

1830-1831 – We are unable to find Henry Kidd Sr. on the 1830 federal census in Buckingham County. However, he and his family (including his son Henry D. Kidd) are listed on the annual Buckingham County PPTLs, as depicted in the table below. In this year, for the first time, Henry Sr. has a son in his household who has come of age, most likely Henry D. Kidd.

1831 – On 14 November 1831, Henry Kidd Sr. wrote a note to the Clerk of Campbell County, Virginia, giving his consent for his son Henry D. Kidd (who was underage) to apply for a marriage license:<sup>69</sup>

On 15 November 1831, Jesse M. Goodman signed a note to the Campbell County Court Clerk giving his consent for the marriage of his daughter Delila F. Goodman and Henry [D.] Kidd.<sup>70</sup>

On the same date, Henry D. Kidd entered into a marriage bond in Campbell County, with Hudson Morris as his security for this marriage.<sup>71</sup> Henry D. Kidd signed his name, while Hudson Morris signed with an X. In this record, the bride’s given name is written as Delia Goodman.

The marriage occurred on 17 November 1831, according to the family Bible record.

1832-1834 – Henry D. Kidd continued to be listed on the Buckingham County PPTLs in each of these years, as shown in the Table below. He then drops from the Buckingham PPTLs, and that same year appears on the Campbell County PPTLs. See next entry, below.

JAMES KIDD

1798-1801 – A James Kidd appears for the first time on the PPTLs in Campbell County in 1798, charged for his own WMT, but no slaves or horses. This listing continues annually through 1801, after which he does not reappear through 1850, the last year we've checked so far.

JAMES T. KIDD

1843 – On 3 August 1843 in Amherst County Court, Maurice Hickey entered into a deed of trust with Lewis B. Kidd, in order to secure the payment of a debt of $120 due by bill dated 25 January 1842, and a further sum of $80.50 due by bill dated 17 March 1843, owed to James Kidd, using a combination of livestock, farm implements and household furniture, along with his current crops of corn, oats and hay.<sup>80</sup> This deed of trust was presented in Lynchburg Court on the same day, and proved by the oath of Maurice Hickey. It was examined in Amherst County Court on 4 August, and admitted to record. [It is not clear why this was recorded in both counties. Given this transaction with Maurice Hickey, this James Kidd is the same man as James T. Kidd in the 1852 record, below.]

1847 – On 6 December 1847, James T. Kidd married Harriet Jane Stanley, the daughter of Joe Stanley, in Lynchburg, Virginia.<sup>81, 82</sup>

1850 – On the federal census in the town of Lynchburg, Campbell County, VA, p. 77, HH 49/53:

1852 – On 3 June 1852, Bryan Healy entered into a deed of trust with James T. Kidd, granting and conveying to James T. Kidd, trustee, a certain lot of ground in the town of Lynchburg (lot 271) at the junction of Water and 10th Streets, for the benefit of Mary Hickey, the wife of Maurice (?) Hickey and of her children for her natural life. Kidd agrees to permit the said Mary Hickey to take possession of the land and use it during her natural life any way she sees fit, free from the debts, contracts, liabilities, etc. of her husband, Maurice Hickey, and upon her death Kidd is to divide the property equally between her children, Daniel, William, James and Maurice Hickey Jr., or any which may hereafter be born, or their descendants. This deed was not admitted to record until 11 April 1860 in the city of Richmond, and on 23 June 1860 in Lynchburg.<sup>83</sup> specific details. Below are the results of our efforts, listed in chronological order of their Campbell County records:

1. Early John Kidd – records from 1805-1827; frequently seen simultaneously with Lewis B. Kidd and Delphia Kidd
2. John Kidd, teacher – records in 1818, 1822-1823. Presumably literate
3. Poor John Kidd – illiterate laborer/farmer; first wife was Sally; second was Mary J. Records from 1850-1860
4. John Kidd, son of Benjamin Kidd of Amelia and Dinwiddie Counties, Virginia – records from 1858-1862
5. John W. (or H.) Kidd – records from 1846-1860

EARLY JOHN KIDD

1805 – Polly Kidd, daughter of Obedience Kidd, married George Lee in Campbell County, VA on 30 May 1805.<sup>85</sup> Consent by Obedience Kidd, mother of the bride. Bondsmen George Lee and John Kidd. John Kidd and Henry Love, witnesses.<sup>86</sup>

1809-1810 – A John Kidd appears for the first time on the Campbell County PPTLs in 1809 (no tax list created in 1808), charged only for one WMT. This listing repeats in 1810, following which he does not reappear until 1850, the last year of these records that we're researched.

1810 – The 1810 federal census for Campbell County, VA lists the following Kidds, all in Lynchburg City:

p. 851, line 3 from bottom; Lewis B. Kidd: 1WM 26-44

p. 852, line 6 John Kidd: 1WM 16-25

1827 – On 23 June 1827, a marriage bond was issued for Jesse L. Beckham and Betsy Kidd in Lynchburg, Virginia. The bondsman was “John Kidd, her guardian.”<sup>91</sup>

1830, 1840 – no John Kidd appears on the federal censuses as a household head in Campbell County, VA.

We have found no further information pertaining to this John Kidd.

JOHN KIDD, teacher (1818-1823)

1818 – John Kidd was listed as a teacher to George E. Dabney in 1818, in an account of the estate of John Dabney, as one of the expenses charged to this estate.<sup>92</sup>

1822 – John Kidd is again listed as a teacher in the estate records of John Dabney.<sup>93</sup>

1823 - John Kidd is again listed as a teacher in the estate records of John Dabney.<sup>94</sup>

Note: The Dabney family was a wealthy family, so this John Kidd must have been well-educated to serve as a teacher to this family. He likely moved to Lynchburg to work for the Dabneys and may have no other connections to the area.

1830, 1840 – no John Kidd appears on the federal censuses as a household head in Campbell County, VA.

We have found no further information pertaining to this John Kidd.

POOR JOHN KIDD

1850 – On the federal census in the town of Lynchburg, Campbell County, VA, p. 86A, HH 187/197:

John Kidd 45MW laborer b. VA Cannot read or write

Sally Kidd 45FW b. VA

Julia A. Kidd 18FW VA

Martha Kidd 16FW VA

George Kidd 12MW VA

A John Kidd also appeared on the Campbell County PPTLs in 1850, taxed only for his tithe, with neither slaves nor horses. We have not checked the Campbell County PPTLs for subsequent years.

1851 – On 10 October 1851, William Daniel Jr. and Elizabeth H. his wife sold to John Kidd for $600 a lot or parcel of land in the county of Campbell near the town of Lynchburg, containing one acre.<sup>95</sup>

On the same day, John Kidd entered into a deed of trust in Campbell County with Robert A. Davis and William T. Yancey, in order to secure the funds to purchase the above lot from William Daniel Jr.<sup>96</sup> John Kidd signed with an X, and could not read or write.

- 1853 – On 15 September 1853, a marriage bond was issued for Martha R. Kidd, daughter of John Kidd, and Geo. T. Akers in Lynchburg, VA.<sup>97</sup> John Kidd was the bondsman.<sup>98</sup>
- 1858 – On 13 April 1858, A. G. Hancock and Charlotte E. his wife sold to John Kidd a lot or parcel of land in Campbell County near the city of Lynchburg and lying on Blackwater Pond, containing one-half acre, for $5. See the deed for a more complete description of the property.<sup>99</sup>
- 1859 – On 24 January 1859, John Kidd and Mary Jane Kidd his wife sold to A. G. Hancock and R. L. Bigbie for $600 a parcel of land in Campbell County near the town of Lynchburg on the north side of Blackwater Pond, containing one-half acre of land. Both John and Mary Jane signed with an X, and neither could write.<sup>100</sup> This is the same parcel of land that Hancock sold to Kidd in 1858. Both deed were recorded on 28 January 1859.
[Judging from the entries on the 1850 and 1860 federal censuses, this is the same John Kidd. If this is the case, John's wife Sally has died, and he has remarried to Mary Jane.]
- 1860 – On 13 May 1860, Martha Richards Akers, wife of George T. Akers, age 28, died in Lynchburg, VA. Her death record names her parents as Jno. and Sarah Kidd.<sup>101</sup>
[This death record lists her place of birth as NC, different from the census record above, and is likely in error.]

On the federal census in Campbell County, Virginia, Castle Craig P.O., p. 433, enumerated on 5 June 1860, dwelling no. 21:

John Kidd 55MW laborer $800/200 VA

Mary J. Kidd 49FW VA

(no others)

We have found no further records for this John Kidd.

JOHN KIDD, son of Benjamin Kidd of Dinwiddie County, VA and his wife Mary/Polly
John6 (Benjamin5, George4, Benjamin3, William2, Thomas1) Kidd
Born abt 1808<sup>102</sup> in Dinwiddie County, Virginia
Lived in Lynchburg, VA 1858-1862
Date and place of death unknown.

- 1820 – On the 1820 federal census in Dinwiddie County, Benjamin Kidd is listed as having 3 males age 0-9 and 1 10-15. Until recently, we knew of only 2 sons of Benjamin and Mary/Polly <sup>102</sup> This is a rough estimate, based upon his age (50) at the time of his 1858 marriage record, his age (55) per the 1860 federal census (which may not be the same John Kidd, but likely is), and his age (51) on his two 1862 marriage records.

Kid: Thomas J. Kidd and James Kidd. We now believe that this John Kidd was another of their sons, based upon his 1858 and 1862 marriage records (see below) that name his parents.

- 1827 – a John Kidd appeared on the Dinwiddie County, VA PPTL this year, paying a tax on 1 horse, and no other property (no slaves). Not listed again until 1833 (see below).
- 1830 –In this year, Benjamin5 Kidd’s widow, Mary Kidd appears on the federal census, with 1M 10-14, 1 15-19, and 1 20-29. We believe that this John Kidd is the “missing” third and youngest son, based on the 1834 and 1843 records below.
- 1833 – There is a September 1833 Dinwiddie County Chancery Court record of a complex suit with John Kidd and Sally his wife among the defendants in a suit brought by Chastain Ellington and his wife Martha, formerly Martha Featherstone. Other defendants include several Hardaways, Price Pollan, John Featherstone and other Featherstones. Defendant William E. Hardaway, administrator of Peter M. Hardaway, deceased was ordered to pay $64.22 to the plaintiff and to several of the other defendants, including John and Sally Kidd.<sup>103</sup> We cannot be sure that this is the same John Kidd, but there were no other John Kidds in this three-county area in the 1830s, so it most likely IS this John Kidd.
- 1833 – John Kidd again appears on the Dinwiddie County, VA PPTL, again taxed on one horse, and no other property.
- 1834 – in the April 1834 session of the Dinwiddie County, VA Chancery Court, there is a suit wherein the Commonwealth of Virginia (for the benefit of the Literary Fund) sues Beverly Anderson, John Kidd and Mary Kidd. According to this entry, John Kidd and Mary Kidd were no longer inhabitants of the Commonwealth. Mary Kidd was ordered to pay $200 to the Commonwealth, for the benefit of the Literary Fund, plus the costs of the suit. And the defendant Anderson was to pay "so much as shall not exceed the $220 in his hands" to satisfy this obligation, which he did.
I can't tell from the entry whether he paid the debt for Mary Kidd, or he was equally indebted, and paid his own debt. No mention is made of John Kidd in the settlement.<sup>104</sup> He doesn't appear again in Dinwiddie County, to my knowledge, and has moved out of the state by 1834.
The Mary Kidd cited in this record is almost certainly Mary/Polly Kidd, the widow of Benjamin Kidd who died in 1821. See her section in this paper.
- This John Kidd disappears from Virginia records for a time; I'm unable to find him on the 1840 and 1850 federal censuses. He reappears in 1858, evidently returning to Lynchburg by 1858 (see below).
- 1858 – On 6 May 1858, a John Kidd, age 50, a widower born in North Carolina, married Mary Burks in Lynchburg, Campbell County, Virginia. His occupation was “tobacconist.”

The Commonwealth Literary Fund was established in 1810 to fund public education in Virginia and was and is funded by court fees, fines, and sale of unclaimed property, including unclaimed lottery winnings today.

This record lists his parents as Benjamin and Polley Kidd.<sup>105</sup>

[Note: This is John Kidd, son of Benjamin and Elizabeth/Betty Kidd of Dinwiddie County, a member of Reiley Kidd's line.]

1862 – On 12 February 1862, Jno. Kidd, a widower age 51, born in Dinwiddie County to Benjamin and Polly Kidd, married Mary Frances Eads, widow age 21, born in Albemarle County to George & Elizabeth Eads. Jno.'s occupation is listed as "tobacconist." The marriage was performed by W. H. Kinckle.<sup>106</sup>

On 12 November 1862, John Kidd, age 31 (probably a clerical error, and actually 51, based upon the record above), a tobacconist and widower born in Dinwiddie County to Benjamin and Polly Kidd, married Mary F. Flowers, age 35, a widow born in Campbell County to William and Patty Woolridge. The ceremony was performed by H. W. Dodge.<sup>107</sup>

This is the last known record found for this John Kidd that we're aware of. We do not know what became of him, or whether he had any surviving children.

JOHN W. KIDD

1846 – On 25 July 1846, John W. Kidd married Ann M. George in Campbell County, VA.<sup>108</sup>
Another abstract of this marriage bond states that Ann George was the daughter of Henry George. The marriage was performed by B. R. Dawson.<sup>109</sup>

1850 – On the federal census in the town of Lynchburg, Campbell County, VA, p. 89B, HH 237/249:

John W. Kidd 24MW plasterer b. VA
Ann M. Kidd 21FW VA
Wm. J. Kidd 3MW VA

1860 – It appears that John W. Kidd died before 1860, because his wife and presumed widow is living with another family in Lynchburg, Campbell County, VA at the time of the 1860 federal census:

The following death record appears to be for the above John W. Kidd. If true, we don't know where he was at the time of the 1860 census.

1861 – Jno. W. Kidd died in Campbell County, VA on 25 June 1861 at the age of 32 years. The cause of his death was “from injury.” The informant for this record was his wife Nancy Kidd. The space for the names of his parents says, “not known.”<sup>110</sup> It lists his place of birth as Campbell County, and his occupation was “none.”

1866 – On 9 August 1866, William H. Sandy and Ann M. Kidd were married in Lynchburg by H. W. Dodge. Both were residents of Lynchburg and widowed at the time. The groom was 35 and a carpenter; the bride was 34.<sup>111</sup>

1870 – On the federal census in St. Clair Township, Smyth County, Virginia, Marion P.O., page 98, HH 44/43:

We've found no further records of his widow or children.

LEWIS/LEWIS B. KIDDs

At least three men by this name appear in Campbell County, Virginia prior to 1850. Lewis B. Kidd Sr., Lewis B. Kidd Jr., and Lewis B. Kidd. All appear on the 1838 Lynchburg City personal property tax lists (PPTLs). We have sorted their entries separately, based upon their estimated dates of birth.

Some of the early records listed here may belong to a man known as Ballard Kidd, possibly a variant of Baldwin, who was referenced in a book that was likely a blend of fact and folktale. Recollections of Lynchburg,<sup>112</sup> a set of sketches purported to have been written in 1858, included a story of a family of Kidds, with a house painter named Ballard Kidd as the family head, who lived near Lynchburg in 1819.

Most of the citations we've found for these three men have been in the PPTLs for Campbell County and/or Lynchburg. We have constructed a Table (see below, in Early Lewis Kidd's section of this compilation) of all the entries found for these three individuals between 1792 (the first year in which a Lewis Kidd was found on these PPTLs) through 1850, the last year of these PPTLs that we have examined.

EARLY LEWIS KIDD/LEWIS B. KIDD [SR]

Born prior to 1771<sup>113</sup>

Died unknown, likely after 1840

1792, 1793 – A Lewis Kidd first appears on the Campbell County, VA PPTLs in 1792, charged only for his own tithe, and neither slaves nor horses. This listing repeats in 1793. In 1794, he drops from the PPTLs for several years.

The Table below depicts all the entries found for these three individuals between 1792 (the first year in which a Lewis Kidd was found on these PPTLs) through 1850, the last year of these PPTLs that we have examined. You'll notice some "gaps" in this Table; these are the years in which no taxpayer named Lewis Kidd was found on the PPTLs in either Campbell County or Lynchburg City.

<sup>128</sup> While I am almost certain that this death record comes from the Chesterfield County Death Register, 1853-1896, it is not found on the LDS microfilm FHL #2056977. The register appears to have been microfilmed incompletely, and images jump from 1867 to 1870, suggesting that the intervening pages were skipped. RK will check this on his next trip to the Library of Virginia, even if it requires requesting the original document.

Recollections of Lynchburg (1858)<sup>129</sup> contains a sketch about a house painter named Ballard Kidd, living in the Lynchburg area around 1819, who was said to have sons Jennings and Baldwin. It is possible that this Lewis B. Kidd is son Baldwin, given his occupation on the 1860 federal census.

1844 – A Campbell County marriage bond dated 25 March 1844 was issued for Lewis B. Kidd and Mary Heath, daughter of Martha Heath. Wm. Martin, security.<sup>130</sup>

The following PPTL entries may be for Lewis B. Kidd [Jr.] or this Lewis Kidd:

1844 – Lewis B. Kidd appears on the Lynchburg City PPTLs.

1847-1849 – Lewis B. Kidd appears on the Lynchburg City PPTLs.

On 1 November 1870, Lewis B. Kidd appeared in Lynchburg Court and filed the following declaration, evidently to protect his land for his wife Mary Ann’s heirs. The wording of this suggests that the money for this land may have come from the Heath family:<sup>133</sup>

LEWIS B. KIDD, named in an 1843 deed of trust involving James Kidd, filed in both Amherst County and Lynchburg City courts

This record seems most likely to be for Lewis B. Kidd [Jr]. The relationship of this James Kidd and Lewis B. Kidd is not known. Given this transaction with Maurice Hickey, this James Kidd may be James T. Kidd (see his section above).

1843 – On 3 August 1843 in Amherst County Court, Maurice Hickey entered into a deed of trust with Lewis B. Kidd, in order to secure the payment of a debt of $120 due by bill dated 25 January 1842, and a further sum of $80.50 due by bill dated 17 March 1843, owed to James Kidd, using a combination of livestock, farm implements and household furniture, along with his current crops of corn, oats and hay.<sup>137</sup> This deed of trust was presented in Lynchburg Court on the same day, and proved by the oath of Maurice Hickey. It was examined in Amherst County Court on 4 August, and admitted to record. [It is not clear why this deed of trust was proven in both courts.]

1873 – On 3 August 1873, Lewis N. Kidd, age 25, single and born in Campbell County, VA married Ch--se (first name illegible) E. [Elizabeth] Elliott, age 22, single and born in Bedford County, VA, in Bedford County. Both were residents of Campbell County at the time of their marriage. This record names his parents as James T. and Harriet J. Kidd and hers as Adam and Susan Ann Elliot. Lewis’s occupation was “mechanic.”<sup>141</sup>

1879 – In September 1879, Lewis Kidd, age 30, died in Brookville District, Campbell County, VA, “shot by John Brown,” according to the 1880 federal census mortality schedule. The actual date of his death was 29 July 1879, judging from the article below:<sup>142</sup>

1880 – Following his death, his widow, Elizabeth Kidd appears with their two daughters on the 1880 federal census in Big Lick Township, Roanoke County, VA, living in the household of her older brother, ED 60, page 30B, HH 227/242:

We could not find this couple on the 1840 or 1850 federal censuses, and have no further information on them.

MARTHA KIDD

1850 – We do not find a Martha Kidd of the proper age in Campbell County in 1850 to match the record below.

- 1853 – George T. Akers obtained a marriage license for his marriage to Martha R. Kidd, “the daughter of John Kidd,” on 15 September 1853.<sup>146</sup> This record states that the groom was 21 years of age.
- 1856 – A Sally Kidd died in Lynchburg City on 27 July 1856 at the age of 60. The cause of death is listed as consumption. This record does not name her parents or her birthplace. The informant was Martha Akers, her daughter. Her marital status is listed as ‘married,’ suggesting that her husband was alive at the time of her death.<sup>147</sup>
- 1860 – Martha Kidd Akers died on 1 May 1860 in Campbell County, Virginia.<sup>148</sup> Her death record states that she was 28 years old at the time of her death, that she was born in North Carolina [which differs from the census record], and that the cause of her death was ‘Diarear’ [diarrhea]. It names her parents as “Jno. and E. Kidd and lists her husband as G.T. Akers. The informant was William Akers, whose relationship is listed as “father.” He was more likely her father-in-law.

Martha R. Akers is also found on the 1860 federal census mortality schedule.<sup>149</sup> This record confirms the above information (including the location of her birthplace as North Carolina) and lists her as M, for married.<sup>150</sup>

Her husband and their two small children are on the 1860 federal census in the Western District (Castle Craig post office) of Campbell County, p. 16, living with her husband’s parents:

- 1821 – On 15 September 1821, Wallace Kidd and Mary Butler were married in Fluvanna County, minister John Goodman.<sup>152</sup>
- 1829 – Wallace Kidd appears on the Campbell County, VA PPTLs in 1829, taxed for his own tithe, with no slaves or horses; no other Kidds appear on this year's PPTLs, and no Kidds are found on them in 1830. Wallace Kidd appears again on the 1831 PPTLs.

This record is consistent with being Wallace Kidd with his wife Mary and their first child John P. Kidd (see records below)

Wallace Kidd died sometime before 1842 when his widow Mary Butler Kidd remarried in 1842 (see below) to Thomas G. Stone. Wallace's daughter Elizabeth J. Kidd's 1889 marriage record in Marion County, IL names her parents as Wallace Kidd and Mary Butler.
- 1840 – The 1840 federal census includes the following Kidds, both on p. 36, adjacent to each other in the NE District of Campbell County:
Tandy K. Kidd: 2M<5, 2 15-19 & 2 20-29; 1F 5-9 & 1 10-14; 10 slaves
Mary Kidd: 1M 15-19; 1F 10-14 & 1 50-59.

We believe that this Mary Kidd above is Mary (Butler) Kidd, the wife and widow of Wallace Kidd, who died sometime between 1831 and 1842.
- 1842 – On 17 June 1842, Thomas G. Stone and Mary Kidd were married in Rockbridge County, VA, minister Samuel D. Campbell.<sup>153</sup>

Kidd married Mahalia Kirby (the daughter of M. B. Kirby of Lynchburg), and Fenal (Fendal) Thomas married Elizabeth Stone, the daughter of Thomas Stone. This second bride is Elizabeth Kidd, John P. Kidd's sister; Thomas Stone was her stepfather, as shown in the 1850 census record above.

Mary and Thomas Stone drop from Rockbridge County records after the 1860 federal census. We've searched the Rockbridge County General Index to Wills and the General Indexes to Deeds (Grantors and Grantees) and find no mentions of them in those indexes. The PPTLs for Rockbridge County for this era (after 1850) are not available online at familysearch.org. Neither of them is found in the Rockbridge County Death Registers, 1853-1896.<sup>156</sup> In short, we do not know what became of either of them.

The following records all pertain to Mary's daughter Elizabeth J. Kidd, who married Fendal Thomas, and after his death married several more times, in Illinois. It is this Elizabeth Kidd McTheney Sands' death record in 1908 that proves she was the daughter of Wallace Kidd and Mary Butler.

1865 – Fendall Thomas died 25 January 1865 in a POW camp, while serving in the Civil War.

1870 – An Eliza Jane Sanson married John H. McTheney on 1 December 1870 in Warren County, Illinois.<sup>157</sup> The bride's surname is perplexing in this record. But we know from the following marriage record that this should be her, or at least that she'd married a McTheney. Warren County isn't close to Marion County, so it's possible that this record is just a coincidence.

And a newspaper notice published in the Louisville newspaper in 1859, seeking the whereabouts of Catherine Ambrozina, "daughter of William and Nancy O. Kidd, of Lynchburg, Virginia."

<sup>167</sup> From other, later records, we have determined the names and approximate ages of Nancy's children, and the ages match well with this census. By the time of the 1830 federal census, oldest daughter Ardelia is married and out on her own; second daughter is also out on her own, enumerated in her own household on this census. And eldest son,

We know that the family was in Campbell County by 1825, because oldest daughter Ardelia married there in that year. And the second daughter Adeline appears in her own household on the 1830 federal census.

It appears that Nancy's husband William Kidd died soon after this census, because he's not found in any subsequent Lynchburg or Campbell County records.

On the 1830 federal census for Lynchburg, another household, with a Nancy Kidd as the household head, is found. This Nancy Kidd is a decade or more younger, with younger children in the household; we believe that this entry belongs to a different, unplaced Nancy Kidd, possibly the mother of Cynthey Kidd.

1837 – On 12 December 1837, Andrew Gross and Cary Ann Kidd were married in Jefferson County, Kentucky by Sml. Burk(?), a Baptist minister. The marriage license states that Cary Ann was the daughter of Nancy O. Kidd, and that consent for this marriage (evidently the bride was under the age of consent) was by her mother “through her brother Edmund Kidd.”<sup>168</sup>

1837-1857 – Nancy O. Kidd appears annually in the city of Louisville on the annual Jefferson County, KY Tax Lists from 1837 through 1858. In each year, she was taxed on a number (varying from three to six) enslaved persons, but no real estate. See Appendix Three for more information.

1840 – A Wm. C. Kidd is listed on the 1840 federal census in Louisville, Jefferson County, Kentucky, page 135:
Wm. C. Kidd: 1WM 5-9, 2 15-19, 1 20-29, & 1 30-39 (is one of these two older males William C. Kidd's presumed brother, Edmund J. Kidd?); 1F<5 and 1 30-39. Three slaves (1M<10, 1 F<10 and 1F 10-23).
There is also a Nancy Kidd in Louisville, Kentucky on this census, on page 76:
Nancy Kidd: 1WM 10-14 & 1 30-39; 1F 50-59. Three slaves. Two persons employed in mfg. & trade.
Next door is likely her daughter, Cary Ann and her husband Andrew Gross:
A. Gross: 2M<5, 1 15-19, & 1 20-29; 1F 20-29. One female slave <10.

1842 – In 1842, William C. Kidd's entries on the Louisville, KY Tax List show that in addition to paying his own taxes, he paid, or at least reported the value of the property of “Mrs. Turner” and Nancy O. Kidd.<sup>169</sup> “Mrs. Turner was William C.'s sister Ardelia.

1848 – The 1848 City directory for Louisville, Kentucky listed the following Kidds:<sup>170</sup>

Kidd, Edmund J, at Andrew Gross’.

Kidd, Mrs Nancy, wid of Wm, 370 n s Broadway bt Centre & 6th.

1855 – On 1 May 1855, Nancy O. Kidd signed her will in Louisville, Jefferson County, KY.<sup>173</sup>

A relatively short will, it is transcribed verbatim below:

I Nancy O. Kidd of Louisville, Kentucky do make this my last will and testament.

I give to Nancy Ellen Gross, my granddaughter, my slave Sarah, the daughter of my slave Saluda Ann, and if said Nancy Ellen should die without issue, then Sarah is to belong to my heirs share and share alike.

I give to my servant girl Amanda the bedstead and bed clothes now used by me.

The remainder of my estate is to be divided into seven parts and each child to have one seventh part except Cary Ann Gross. To her I give two sevenths of the residue of my estate, one seventh in her own right, and one seventh because of her kind attention to her brother and my son, Edmund J. Kidd, deceased.

I witness my hand and seal this 1st day of May 1855.
(her mark)

(signed) Nancy O. X Kidd

Signed, sealed and published in our presence by the testatrix this first day of May in testimony whereof we have hereto subscribed our names as witnesses at her request, in her presence and presence of each other.

(signed)

Thos. W. Gibson

Will P. Thomasson

Unfortunately, her will does not specifically name her all her children. But we can infer from the language that she had six children presumably living, and that one child, Edmund, was deceased. In her will, she created seven equal shares from her estate: one for each of six children, and the seventh share to go to her daughter, Cary Ann (Kidd) Gross, for the care and attention she and her family provided to her and son Edmund J. toward the end of their lives.

We are left to deduce the identities of her children, based on other records. Below is a list of her children, along with the evidence confirming them as such

Children of William and Nancy O. ___ Kidd:

1. Adaline Kidd:<sup>174</sup> b. ca 1804, Virginia; married Robert S. Fields; died 19 July 1867 in Louisville, KY
2. William C. Kidd:<sup>175</sup> b ca 1805; moved to Louisville by 1830, died there in 1857
3. Edmund J. Kidd:<sup>176</sup> b ca 1806, moved to Louisville, KY; d by 1855,<sup>177</sup> apparently no heirs
4. Ardelia O. Kidd:<sup>178</sup> b. 15 October 1808; married 5 times; d. 13 July 1857 in St. Louis, MO
5. Cary Ann Kidd:<sup>179</sup> b. ca 1812; married Andrew Gross;

---

<sup>174</sup> Named as a sister of Ardelia O. Kidd in Ardelia's will, signed 8 July 1856.

Elements tying William C. Kidd to Nancy O. Kidd, Edmund J. and Cary Ann Kidd Gross:

1. Nancy's 1855 will implies 6 surviving children, but names only two of them: Cary Ann (Kidd) Gross; there are clearly 5 more of her children who were living when the will was signed.
2. He was likely the security for the marriages of two of Nancy's proven daughters: Ardelia in 1825, and Adeline in 1831.
3. All of them were close neighbors in 1850
4. William C. Kidd either reported Nancy O. Kidd's taxable property (her slaves) on at least two of the annual Jefferson Co., KY tax lists (1838 and 1842) or he actually paid the tax for her (or both) in those years.
5. Wm. C. Kidd and Andrew Gross, hb of Cary Ann, were in the same business
6. Edmund J. Kidd witnessed a deed involving Wm. C. Kidd in 1837
7. Wm. C. Kidd sold property to Cary Ann Kidd, wife of Andrew Gross (not to Andrew himself)

<sup>176</sup> Named in his mother's will and in his sister, Ardelia's will.

<sup>179</sup> Her 1837 marriage record names her mother as Nancy O. Kidd. And Nancy O. Kidd's will specifically names Cary Ann as her daughter.

6. Catherine Kidd:<sup>180</sup> b. and d. unknown; apparently married before 1845 to a man named Ambrozina, and per relatives moved to Buffalo, NY.
7. Josiah P. Kidd:<sup>181</sup> b. unknown; first appears on the Louisville Tax Lists in 1848, listed at the same address as Nancy Kidd. Named as brother of Ardelia O. Kidd Houghton in her will, signed 8 July 1856, and listed as deceased.

1858 – On 18 January 1858, an instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Nancy O. Kidd dec'd, late of this county, was produced in Court and proved by the oath of Thomas W. Gibson, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, who also made oath that William P. Thomason the other subscribing witness signed the same in his presence and in the presence of and at the request of the testator. Whereupon the same was Established by the Court to be the last will and testament of Nancy O. Kidd dec'd and ordered to be recorded.<sup>182</sup> The exact date of Nancy O. Kidd's death is unknown.

Because she died testate, no inventory or settlement accounts were required by law.<sup>183</sup> Nancy O. Kidd apparently owned no land. She's not found in the Deed Indexes of Jefferson County; her executor, grandson William H. Baltimore, did execute several deeds, but none of them involved Nancy O. Kidd's estate. And we can find no Jefferson County Court records that mention her other heirs.

The following notice appeared in the Louisville Weekly Courier-Journal on 20 April 1859:<sup>184</sup>

Information is wanted of Mrs. Catherine Ambrozina, daughter of William and Nancy O. Kidd, of Lynchburg, Va. She has not been heard of by her relatives in Louisville for fifteen years, but at last accounts was at Buffalo, New York. By the decease of a relative, it will be greatly to her interest to make herself known, and communicate with her friends in Louisville. The press will confer a favor by giving the above publicity.

This notice was most likely prompted by Nancy O. Kidd's family or executor attempting to locate all her heirs. It is at present one of three sources<sup>185</sup> of the name of Nancy O. Kidd's husband, as well as the name of her missing daughter.

<sup>183</sup> Personal correspondence from Walter Bowman, archivist for the Kentucky Dept. for Libraries and Archives, September 2020: "The presence of the will negates the need for a settlement or inventory. If the deceased owned land you may be able to find the will's executor listed as the grantor on deed indexes with the actual deed then stating the relationship to the deceased. If there was a court case or cases stemming from the provisions of the will, they may provide insight into the heirs."

<sup>185</sup> The other two records which name her (deceased) husband as William are the 1848 and 1851 Louisville, KY City directories. Perhaps a search of other, earlier Louisville City Directories might discover other similar entries.

1859 – On 18 January 1859, in Jefferson County Court, on the motion of William H. Baltimore, who made oath according to law, administration with the will annexed of Nancy O. Kidd, dec'd late of this county is granted him. Whereupon he gave bond with Adaline Fields (his mother) his security as required by law.<sup>186</sup>

1841 – In 1841, Richard Kidd and Lewis B. Kidd are the only Kidds found on the Lynchburg City PPTLs. It is unlikely this is the same Richard Kidd.

SALLY KIDD, wife of John Kidd

1850 – On the federal census in the town of Lynchburg, Campbell County, VA, p. 86A, HH 187/197:

John Kidd 45MW laborer b. VA Cannot read or write

1856 – Sally Kidd died in Lynchburg City on 27 July 1856 at the age of 60. The cause of death is listed as consumption. This record does not name her parents or her birthplace. The informant was Martha Akers, her daughter. Her marital status is listed as ‘married,’ suggesting that her husband was alive at the time of her death.<sup>193</sup>

1816 – Tandy K. Kidd’s father Jesse Kidd was a soldier in the War of 1812 who died in camp in 1815. After Jesse’s death, Tandy’s mother Mary (Polly) Cannon Bugg married Joseph Melton on 21 August 1816 in Fluvanna County, Virginia.<sup>195</sup>

Tandy Kidd: 1FWM 20-29 (no other occupants). No slaves.

Next to him is a Charles Kidd, but this census was compiled alphabetically by first letter of the surname of the household head, so this provides no information about geographic proximity of these two men.

Charles Kidd: 1M 50-59 & 1F 60-69. No slaves.

He is not found on the PPTLs in either Albemarle or Fluvanna County in 1830.

1831 – Fluvanna County October Court 1831: "On the motion of Tandy Kidd setting forth that he is desirous of selling ardent spirits at Mrs. Syler's Tavern in this county he having obtained a License to sell goods at that place as a merchant the court doth certify that the said Kidd is a man of good characters."<sup>198</sup>

On 1 May 1840, Tandy K. Kidd entered into a Deed of Trust with Jno. M. Speed and William W. Mosby in order to secure a debt of $2000 and interest, due by bond to Charles L. Mosby; in doing so, he used a tract of land in Campbell County containing 360 acres, on which he resided at the time. This deed was recorded in Campbell County Court on 26 June 1841.<sup>221</sup>

On 8 June 1840, the Campbell County Court appointed Jesse A. Burton as overseer of the Forrest Road from the County Line to Blackwater Creek, and Tandy K. Kidd and some of his neighbors were ordered to assist in keeping the road in good repair.<sup>222</sup>

1841 – On 30 April 1841, Tandy K. Kidd advertised for sale 360 acres of farmland "situated on the forest road, 2 miles from Lynchburg" in several newspapers, including the Richmond Whig:

A VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE—The subscriber having determined to move to the west, offers his valuable Farm, containing 360 acres, for sale. This land is situated on the forest road, 2 miles from Lynchburg, adjoining the lands of Mr Saml M Scott and others. On this tract there is 100 acres of land heavily timbered. The Plantation is in a high state of improvement, the whole being well set with clover. The improvements are a good and convenient Dwelling House, and all other necessary Houses, together with a large 3 story Barn, Stables, &c, with a Wool Carding Machine, Grist and Saw Mill, all new, and built with stone and brick, sufficiently large for manufacturing purposes. The Farm is partly inclosed with stone, and locust post with oak plank, and well deserves the attention of those wishing to purchase land. Terms accommodating. The premises will be shown to any person who will call upon my brother living on the land. TANDY K. KIDD.
Messrs Payne & Turner are fully authorized to effect a sale for me. T. K. KIDD.

On 16 June 1841, Tandy K. Kidd and Mary C. Kidd, his wife, sold to Seth Holsy/Halsy for $7200 a tract of land in Campbell County on the waters of Ivy and Black Water Creeks containing 358<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub> acres, the same tract where the said Kidd and his family have lived for several years, together with a saw and grist mill recently erected there, (along with) the said Kidd's interest in 2 carding machines also in operation on the said land... Tandy K. Kidd appeared in Campbell County Court on 21 June 1841 and acknowledged this deed to be his intent.

At this time, he may have already moved his family to Washington County, Arkansas, because his wife Mary C. Kidd did not appear in person in Campbell County to acknowledge she is giving up her dower rights to the property. She appeared before Justices of the Peace in Washington County, Arkansas, on 26 July 1841, and gave her acknowledgment and consent to this deed, apart from her husband.

The deed was admitted to record in Campbell County Court on 16 February 1842.<sup>223</sup>

1842 – Tandy K. Kidd appears for the last time on the Campbell County LTLs in 1842.

He drops from these annual lists in 1843, when he moves to Arkansas.

1844 – Tandy K. Kidd was the defendant in a Lynchburg City Chancery Court suit, titled John T Johnson v Tandy K Kidd et al.<sup>224</sup>

John T. Johnson, the plaintiff, in his plea states that he became bound as the endorser (security) of a bond in which Tandy K. Kidd owed to Richard Perkins for the sum of $250 by note dated 3 May 1841, negotiable and payable six months after the date thereof. His complaint states that at the time this note was signed, Tandy K. Kidd was residing near Lynchburg and was in possession of considerable real and personal estate. Shortly thereafter he sold most of his property and together with his family removed to the state of Arkansas, where he is now a resident. Moreover, the complaint says that Tandy Kidd left without paying off this debt and is now indebted to the plaintiff. The complaint says that some of Kidd's personal property, including one or more wool carding machines, are currently in the possession of several merchants in Lynchburg, who are also named as defendants. Johnson, the plaintiff, wanted this property sold to pay the debt.

12 June 1844. At the Amherst County Circuit Superior Court of Law & Chancery, held for the town of Lynchburg: John T. Johnson Plaintiff against Tandy K Kidd, James Dolan, Andrew Kinnier, Thomas H Towles and Smithson H Davis Jr, merchants and parties trading under the style and firm of Smithson H. Davis Jr. and Company, Defendants. This suit is dismissed the plaintiff not further prosecuting.<sup>225</sup>

Tandy Kidd's first wife Mary died on 27 June 1848, according to family Bible records.

WALLACE KIDD

Born abt. 1791 in Buckingham County, Virginia<sup>227</sup>

Married Mary Butler in Fluvanna County in 1821

Lived in Campbell County

Date of death unknown; thought to have died after 1831 and before 1842, when his wife and widow remarried, in Rockbridge County, VA

1809-1810 – In each of these years, a Wallace Kidd appears on the Campbell County, VA PPTLs, charged each year with only his own tithes. He drops from these lists in 1811, and does not reappear through 1814.

1813-1815 – On 13 August 1813, a Wallace Kidd, age 22, born in Buckingham County, VA enlisted in the U.S. Army as a private for a term of 18 months. The location where he enlisted was left blank. His occupation was “hatter.” He was discharged on 13 February 1815, when his term expired.<sup>228</sup>

This record may be for a different Wallace Kidd, but that seems unlikely. This is a very unusual given name, and the age fits.

1821 – On 15 September 1821, Wallace Kidd and Mary Butler were married in Fluvanna County, VA, John Goodman, a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church.<sup>229</sup>

1829 – After an absence of nearly twenty years, a Wallace Kidd again appears on the Campbell County PPTLs, taxed only for his own tithes, and no horse or other property.<sup>230</sup>

1830 – The 1830 federal census includes the following Kidds, all in Lynchburg City:

p. 329, line 4 from bottom, Lewis B. Kidd: 1M 5-9, 1 10-14 & 1 50-59; 1F 10-14, 2 15-19, 1 50-59 and 1 60-69;

p. 330, line 2 Delpha Kidd: 1FWM 20-29; 1F 70-79

line 3 Nancy Kidd: 1M 5-9 & 1 10-14; 1F 5-9, 1-10-14 & 1 30-39

line 5 Adline Kidd: 1F 15-19, 1 20-29 & 1 30-39

<sup>227</sup> His 1813 enlistment record in the U.S. Army lists his age as 22, and his place of birth as Buckingham.

line 9 Daniel Kidd: 1 M 30-39

Wallis Kidd is enumerated in Campbell County, but not in Lynchburg City:
p. 342, line 12 Wallis Kidd: 1M<5 & 1 30-39; 1F 20-29

Despite this entry, he does not appear on the 1830 Campbell County PPTL.

1831 – Wallace Kidd appears for one final time on the 1831 Campbell County PPTL, taxed only for his own tithes.<sup>231</sup>

He does not appear on these tax records again through 1850, the last year that we have checked. He also is not found on the Rockbridge County PPTLs from 1832 through 1842.

We haven't found any other records for Wallace Kidd in Campbell County or elsewhere, including Rockbridge County, Virginia.<sup>232</sup> His widow, Mary Butler Kidd remarried in Rockbridge County, Virginia in 1842, and has her two children by Wallace Kidd in her household in 1850.

We believe that Wallace Kidd died in Campbell County prior to the 1840 federal census; that his widow, Mary Butler Kidd, married Thomas Stone in Rockbridge County, Virginia in 1842; that her two children by Wallace Kidd were the John P. Kidd and Elizabeth Kidd found in Thomas Stone's household in 1850 in Rockbridge County, Virginia; and that Elizabeth J. McTheney's 1889 marriage record is the linchpin tying this family group to Wallace Kidd of Buckingham, Fluvanna and Campbell Counties.

See Mary Butler Kidd's section in this compilation for full details of this analysis.

WILLIAM KIDD – unplaced

1832 – On 10 November 1832, Allen Taylor and Macartha Ann Kidd were granted a marriage bond in Lynchburg, Virginia. The bondsman was William Kidd; his relationship to the bride was not stated.<sup>233</sup> The marriage occurred the same day.<sup>234</sup>

This record is unlikely to belong to William C. Kidd, given that William C. Kidd was residing in Louisville, KY at this time. We're not sure who this William Kidd is.

No William Kidd is found on either the Campbell County PPTLs or the Lynchburg PPTLs in 1835, or thereafter until 1843. We believe that this later (1843) William is the William H. Kidd, below.

WILLIAM KIDD, husband of Nancy O. (Bugg) Kidd

Born by 1781,<sup>235</sup> likely in Virginia

Married Nancy O. Bugg, daughter of William C. Bugg and Mary Sadler, on 11

<sup>232</sup> He is not found on the Rockbridge County PPTLs between 1832 and 1842 and no other records have been found for him in that county (where his widow remarried in 1842).

<sup>235</sup> He'd have been at least twenty-one years old in November 1802, when he married Nancy O. Bugg.

November 1802 in Fluvanna County, VA<sup>236</sup>

Owned property in Fluvanna County, lived primarily in Buckingham County, leaving numerous records in both counties

Likely died soon after 1830, as we find no subsequent records for him

See his section in our Fluvanna County compilation for a complete list of all records we found for him, in multiple counties.

We know that Nancy O. Kidd's husband was named William Kidd from three sources: the 1848 and 1851 Louisville (KY) City Directories<sup>237</sup> list her as "Mrs. Nancy Kidd, widow of Wm." And he and wife Nancy O. Kidd are identified as the parents of Catherine Kidd Ambrozina in a newspaper notice seeking to locate heirs of the deceased Nancy O. Kidd, published in the Louisville Weekly Courier-Journal on 20 April 1859.<sup>238</sup>

Information is wanted of Mrs. Catharine Ambrozina, daughter of William and Nancy O. Kidd, of Lynchburg, Va. She has not been heard of by her relatives in Louisville for fifteen years, but at last accounts was at Buffalo, New York. By the decease of a relative, it will be greatly to her interest to make herself known, and communicate with her friends in Louisville. The press will confer a favor by giving the above publicity.

No William Kidd is found on Campbell County PPTLs from 1785 through 1831, or on Campbell County census records than in 1830. We believe him to be the William Kidd who appears on the 1830 census for Lynchburg VA, below.

1830 – The 1830 federal census includes the following Kidds, all in Lynchburg City:

p. 329, line 4 from bottom, Lewis B. Kidd: 1M 5-9, 1 10-14 & 1 50-59; 1F 10-14, 2 15-19, 1 50-59 and 1 60-69;

p. 330, line 2 Delpha Kidd: 1FWM 20-29; 1F 70-79

line 3 Nancy Kidd: 1M 5-9 & 1 10-14; 1F 5-9, 1-10-14 & 1 30-39

line 5 Adline Kidd: 1F 15-19, 1 20-29 & 1 30-39; no slaves

line 6 William Kidd: 1M<5, 1 5-9 & 1 40-49; 1F 5-9, 2 15-19. 1 20-29, & 1 40-49; three slaves

line 9 Daniel Kidd: 1 M 30-39

We've found no other records for this William Kidd in Lynchburg or Campbell County.

We suspect that he died soon after 1830, and that Nancy and most of their children followed their eldest son William C. Kidd in his migration to Louisville.

WILLIAM C. KIDD, son of William and Nancy O. Kidd<sup>239</sup>

Born by 1804<sup>240</sup> in Virginia

Lived in Campbell County/Lynchburg between 1828 and 1834

Moved to Louisville, Jefferson Co KY, by 1834, where he married Candace/Candasia Jennings, who died about 1852

Married Marietta/Mary E. Stout in September 1853 in Spencer Co KY

Died intestate about 1857 in Louisville KY

Occupation: livery stable operator; carriage trade and real estate investor<sup>241</sup>

Three known children by this marriage, all born in Louisville, Jefferson County, KY: George W. [E.] Kidd, born abt 1835; Anna C. Kidd, born abt 1837; and Emma C. Kidd, born abt 1846.<sup>242</sup>

1825 – On 21 April 1825, a marriage bond was issued in Lynchburg city for Joseph Cohen and Ardellia O. Kidd. The bondsman was William Kidd and the witness was James Benagh.<sup>243</sup>

On the same day, Joseph Cohen and Ardillia O. Kidd were married in Lynchburg by the pastor of the Lynchburg Baptist Church.<sup>244</sup>

Note: If the bondsman in this record was William C. Kidd, then William C. would have been at least 21 to have served as bondsman. The bondsman could have been her father William, but it seems more likely this is her brother William C. Kidd.

1. Nancy's 1855 will implies 6 surviving children, but names only two of them: Cary Ann (Kidd) Gross; there are clearly 5 more of her children who were living when the will was signed.
2. He was likely the security for the marriages of two of Nancy's proven daughters: Ardelia in 1825, and Adeline in 1831.
3. All of them were close neighbors in 1850
4. William C. Kidd either reported Nancy O. Kidd's taxable property (her slaves) on at least two of the annual Jefferson Co., KY tax lists (1838 and 1842) or he actually paid the tax for her (or both) in those years.
5. Wm. C. Kidd and Andrew Gross, hb of Cary Ann, were in the same business
6. Edmund J. Kidd witnessed a deed involving Wm. C. Kidd in 1837
7. Wm. C. Kidd sold property to Cary Ann Kidd, wife of Andrew Gross (not to Andrew himself)

<sup>240</sup> Our only evidence of the year of his birth is the 1850 federal census, at which time he was said to be 40 years old. If this is indeed the case, then the 1828 record here would have to be for a different William Kidd, as William C. Kidd would have been only 15. However, we believe the census to be in error, because he's likely the William Kidd who was security for his sister, Ardelia's 1825 marriage bond. He'd have to be twenty-one or older to perform this role.

<sup>241</sup> He was a party in at least 23 deeds in Jefferson County, KY between 1835 and 1856. We have browsed them all for genealogical information, but not added them to this compilation. A complete listing of these deeds, including citations for all of them, as well as scanned images of most of them, is available from the authors.

1828 – On 7 March 1828, Meredith Lambeth, Trustee of Charles R. Dibrell of the county of Campbell, sold to William Kidd of the town of Lynchburg for $450 a lot or parcel of ground on the south side of the James River in the Corporation of Lynchburg beginning at Lynch or 1st Street ... (description of land follows) containing one acre, more or less.<sup>245</sup>

1829-1839 – A William Kidd appears for the first time on the Campbell County Land Tax Lists (LTLs), taxed on 1 acre “conveyed by Dibrell’s Trustee” in the deed above. This entry continues annually through 1839. In later years the description of this land was “17N,” indicating it was 17 miles north of the Campbell County courthouse. In 1835, the amount of land he was taxed on was reduced to ¼ acre; the accompanying notation (see below) says that ¾ acre was sold to pay his delinquent taxes. [It is possible that the taxes were delinquent because he had moved to Kentucky by 1830.]

William continued to be taxed annually on ¼ acre through 1839. He drops from the Campbell County LTLs in 1840, and does not reappear.<sup>246</sup>

1830 – Wm. C. Kidd appears for the first time<sup>247</sup> on the Jefferson County KY tax lists in 1830 in the city of Louisville, with no taxable real estate and three horses.<sup>248</sup> No other Kidds are there with him.

We did not find him on the 1831 tax lists for Jefferson County, and the 1832 lists are not extant. See 1833, below.

Also in 1830, a William Kidd appears on the Campbell County (and/or Lynchburg) PPTLs for the first time. He (or they, as it seems to be more than one in 1833 & 1834) continues to be listed through 1834, as depicted in the Table below:

These records all may be for William C. Kidd, who possibly was taxed for his father’s slaves after his father’s death after 1830.

No William Kidd is found on either the Campbell County PPTLs or the Lynchburg PPTLs in 1835, or thereafter until 1843. We believe that this later William is the William H. Kidd, below.

- 1831 – On 28 February 1831, a marriage bond was issued in Lynchburg, Virginia for Robert S. Fields and Adeline Baltimore.<sup>253</sup> The bondsman was William Kidd; his relationship to this couple was not stated, but we believe this was most likely William C. Kidd, the brother of the bride.
- 1833 – William C. Kidd again appears on the Jefferson County, Kentucky tax list in 1833, taxed for one white tithe, no real estate, 3 horses and one pleasure carriage.<sup>254</sup>
- 1834 – We are unable to find him on the 1834 tax lists for Jefferson County, KY.

On 1 May 1834, William Kidd married Candace<sup>255</sup> Jennings, daughter of John Jennings, in Jefferson County KY.<sup>256</sup> This record aligns with the death record of their daughter, Annie E. (Kidd) Bence, who died in 1909 in Putnam County, Indiana, naming her father as “Wm. Kidd” and her mother as “__ Jennings.”

- 1835 – On 16 March 1835, James M. Gilliam and Margaret his wife, of the City of Louisville, Kentucky sold to William C. Kidd of the same place, for $450 a parcel of land 25 feet wide and 52½ feet long, part of a half-acre lot number 240 “on the east side of Lynch cross street between Market and Jefferson Streets.”<sup>257</sup>

On 21 May 1835, James Maloney and Benjamin Maloney and Susan his wife, all of Jefferson County, Kentucky, sold to William C. Kidd for the sum of $660, to be paid in three equal installments ... (detailed description omitted here), the land being part of Bullitt’s addition to Louisville, “being part of Lot No. 3 in said Addition.”<sup>258</sup>

On 16 November 1835, Green Gipson of Louisville, Kentucky entered into a Deed of Trust with William C. Kidd, as surety for a debt owed by Gipson to Abraham Phigley (seven notes totalling $225). In securing this debt, Gipson put up as collateral “five horses 1835-1848 – William C. Kidd again appears on the Jefferson County, KY annual tax lists in 1835, and continues to be listed there through 1848, the last year of these records that are available online. Other Kidds are found there with him intermittently, and in two occasions, he pays the tax for Nancy O. Kidd, his mother, and his sister Mrs. [Ardelia] Turner. See Appendix Three for a Table depicting these records.

1837 – On 22 August 1837, James M. Gilliam and Margaret his wife of the city of Louisville and county of Jefferson and state of Kentucky sold to William C. On this same date, William C. Kidd and Candace his wife of the city of Louisville sold to Granville Phipps of the same place for $550 the land purchased from James M. Gilliam and wife two years earlier. Both William C. and Candace signed this deed, and in this deed, her name seems to be spelled "Candasin."<sup>261</sup>

On 16 December 1837, William Kidd of Louisville, Kentucky entered into a mortgage agreement with George H. Griffey, "to secure to Griffey the sum of $5000, with interest thereon due and owing as followeth: one-third of said sum in one year, one-third in in two years and the final third in three years as per notes of this date."

[In 1842, William C. Kidd’s entries on the Louisville, KY Tax List show that in addition to paying his own taxes, he paid, or at least reported the value of the property of “Mrs. Turner” and Nancy O. Kidd.<sup>265</sup>

1840 – This William Kidd drops from the Campbell County Land Tax Lists in 1840, and does not reappear through 1850, the last year that we’ve checked.

A Wm. C. Kidd is listed on the 1840 federal census in Louisville, Jefferson County, Kentucky, page 135:

<sup>269</sup> Born abt 1835, per the 1850 census. Served as administrator of his father’s estate; he is NOT the George Kidd, single and age 40 who died in Louisville of cancer of the stomach on 22 Oct 1866. In the last of three deeds he executed in late 1859, we see that he was married to Margaret ____, and that they had recently migrated to Andrew Co., Missouri. See Jefferson Co., KY DB 107:235-236 (digital images available).

<sup>270</sup> Annie C. Kidd married John H. Bence in Putnam Co., Indiana, and remained there her entire life, dying there on 3 August 1909. Her death certificate names her parents as “Wm. Kidd” and “__ Jennings,” and lists her date of birth as 29 August 1837 in KY. A search on Ancestry for her husband is an efficient way to learn much more about Annie, and their family. The book Weik’s History of Putnam County, Indiana contains a biography of him (page 321), which provides the following: “In 1853 Mr. Bence married Anna Kidd, who was reared in Louisville, but who was visiting relatives in Putnam County when she met her her future husband...”

An abstract of Jefferson County death registers for 1852-1862 lists no Kidd entries.<sup>274</sup> However, Jefferson County, KY Court minutes (see 1857, below) provide an element of closure.

1851 – the 1851 City directory for Louisville, Kentucky listed the following Kidds:<sup>275</sup>

Kidd & Davies, keeps livery stable, s s Jefferson, bt 3rd & 4th.

Kidd, Wm C, f K & Davies, h n s Green, bt 3rd & 4th.

1853 – We believe that William C. Kidd’s first wife died sometime after the 1850 federal census (above) and 1853 (primarily because his wife in 1857 was a Mary E. Kidd, and because of this marriage record, below):

On 11 September 1853, William C. Kidd married Marietta Stout in Spencer County, Kentucky.<sup>276</sup> It’s not apparent why this marriage occurred in Spencer County; this county lies just east of Jefferson County.

1855 – Jefferson County, Kentucky Court, 3 September 1855: On the motion of W. S. D. Megowan, Sheriff of this County, George E. Kidd was sworn and admitted as his deputy.<sup>277</sup>

1856 – On 2 September 1856, Wm. C. Kidd and Marietta his wife sold to Cary Ann Gross, the wife of Andrew Gross (all of Louisville, KY) for the sum of $1035 a lot in Louisville “containing a front on the north side of Broadway of 34½ feet ... and known as Bustard’s subdivision

On 28 October 1856, George E. Kidd, age 22 and single, married Margaret Wharton, age 18 and single, in Jefferson County, Kentucky.<sup>279</sup> The entry in the Jefferson County Marriage Register states that Margaret's father was Saml. Wharton, who consents for the marriage. They were married by T. G. Drane. Witnesses to the marriage were George Wharton and William C. Kidd.<sup>280</sup> This couple moved to Edward County in Missouri before 1860, when they are found on the 1860 federal census in Nodaway township, Savannah P.O., in Edward County MO.

1857 – William C. Kidd died on Sunday 11 January 1857 in Louisville, Kentucky. His death notice appeared in the Louisville Courier-Journal the following day:<sup>281</sup>

DEATH OF WM. C. KIDD.—Mr. Kidd, late marshal of the city court, died about 9 o'clock last evening. Mr. K. had been in ill health for some time, and for the last month or two had been confined to his bed.

His economic fortunes had evidently deteriorated in the years prior to his death, judging from the notice below, which appeared in the Louisville newspapers several days after his death:<sup>282</sup>

The motions against Wm. C. Kidd, the late city marshal, were continued for two weeks in consequence of his recent death. There is a deficit of $9,000 or $10,000 in the accounts of the deceased, which will be paid in as soon as judgment is ordered. The most of the money goes to the school fund, and is needed at this juncture.

The Minute Book for Jefferson County Court shows the following entries pertaining to William C. Kidd in 1857:<sup>283</sup>

5 February 1857:

This day Mary E. Kidd, widow of Wm. C. Kidd dec'd this day in writing (illegible) renounced(?) her right to qualify as admr. of sd. decedent.

On the motion of George E. Kidd who made oath according to law, administration of the Estate of William C. Kidd, dec'd late of this county is granted him. Whereupon he gave bond with J. W. Davis, W. A. (Nally?), Joseph Enders and Andrew Buran(?) his securities as required by law.

On 12 November 1857, a list of sales of the Estate of Wm. C. Kidd dec'd was returned, filed and ordered to be recorded.<sup>285</sup>

1858 – On 8 January 1858, an instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Nancy O. Kidd dec'd, late of this county, was produced in Court and proved by the oath of Thomas W. Gibson, one of the subscribing witnesses thereto, who also made oath that William P. Thomason the other subscribing witness signed the same in his presence and in the presence of and at the request of the testator. Whereupon the same was Established by the Court to be the last will and testament of Nancy O. Kidd dec'd and ordered to be recorded.<sup>286</sup>

Her will, signed on 1 May 1855 and proved in court on 18 January 1858, left specific bequests to her granddaughter Nancy Ellen Gross, daughter Cary Ann Gross, and deceased son Edmund J. Kidd, deceased, along with five implied other children, who were not named.<sup>287</sup> The clue to the number of children she had—seven in all—is found in her allotting the remainder of her estate to be divided in seven shares, with two shares going to her daughter Cary Ann Gross in appreciation for Cary Ann caring for her and Edmund J. Kidd later in their lives. See Nancy O. Kidd's section of this paper.

1859 – On 11 June 1859, the Jefferson County, Kentucky Court appointed J. W. Davis guardian to Emma C. Kidd, infant orphan of Wm. C. Kidd dec'd and under the age of fourteen years. Whereupon he gave bond with George E. Kidd as his security as required by law.<sup>288</sup>

On 7 October 1859, Anna E. Kidd, George E. Kidd and Emma C. Kidd accepted the division and partition of the real estate descended to them from their father Wm. C. Kidd, dec'd, allotted by Commissioners of the Court following a petition to the Court filed by George E. Kidd.

The Commissioners allotted to Anna E. Kidd “the lot with improvements 30 feet front by 113 feet deep on the north side of Broadway 30 feet east of 7th Street; also a lot 71 feet by 250 on the East side of Adams and Smith and adjoining Wood Street; she is also to receive from Geo. On 26 November 1859, George E. Kidd, administrator, Mary E. Kidd, widow, and Geo. E. Kidd, Anna E. Kidd and Emma C. Kidd, children and heirs of Wm. C. Kidd, dec'd, in compliance with a Court Order to sell some of said Kidd's property, agreed to the sale of "amongst other pieces, of an undivided half of 52 ½ feet front on the north side of Main Street between Jackson and Clay Streets, and extending back the same width to Washington Street." The Marshall of the Court reported back that this property was sold to Benjamin Everett on 30 May 1859 at the price of $1270. This deed was confirmed by the Commissioner appointed to conclude the sale, and was admitted to record on this date.<sup>290</sup>

1863 – On 15 January 1863, Mr. William J. Mount and Mrs. Mary E. Kidd, both of Louisville, Kentucky, were married at Mr. Lane's residence in Louisville, in the presence of O. Lane, T. T. 1843 – Campbell County Marriage bond dated 8 February 1843: William H. Kidd and Mary Fosdick. James M. Johnson, security.<sup>294</sup> As will be seen below, this was Mary (Johnson) Fosdick's second marriage.

Another secondary source<sup>295</sup> lists his name as William W. Kidd, and hers as Mary Johnson Fosdick; it also states that she was the 3rd wife and widow of Cpt. William Fosdick (1769-1839).

On 17 May 1843, both Henry D. Kidd and William Kidd (no middle initial) were enumerated on the 1843 Campbell County PPTL. William Kidd was taxed for one white male tithe (his own) and one horse.<sup>296</sup>

1844 – William Kidd (no middle initial) again appears on the Campbell County PPTL, enumerated April 22; his presumed brother is also on the 1844 PPTL, enumerated April 5. William was once again taxed for one white male tithe (his own) and one horse.<sup>297</sup>

On 10 December 1844, William H. Kidd entered into a Deed of Trust with John H. Bailey, in order to secure the payment of a debt of $75 owed by bond to Edward Carter and due on 1 January 1846. In doing so, he used as his collateral a combination of various livestock, farm implements and household furniture, as well as three-fourths of his crops raised in 1845.<sup>298</sup>

1846 – William Kidd's name is not found on the 1845 Campbell County PPTLs. He reappears there in 1846, again taxed for his own tithe, and no property otherwise.<sup>299</sup> He then drops from the annual PPTLs, and does not reappear through 1850 (the last year of these records that we have checked).

The Fosdick children are Mary A.'s children by her first marriage. She married William Fosdick on 4 January 1833 in Campbell County, VA, and he died testate there in 1839.<sup>300</sup>

1858 – On 12 February 1858, William H. Kidd and Mary A. Kidd his wife sold to James B. Fosdick for $550 the whole of their life estate interest in a certain tract of land in the county of Campbell on the waters of Troublesome Creek, and containing 173 acres, adjoining the lands of Robert Saunders, T--- (illegible) Callahan, Thomas Burnes and others, it being the land devised by William Fosdick to his wife Mary during her life. Both William H. Kidd and Mary A. Kidd signed with an X.<sup>301</sup>

The date of his death, and that of his wife, are currently unknown.

He and his wife, Mary are evidently buried in the Salem United Methodist Church Cemetery, in Evington, Campbell County, VA. This cemetery is in the Castle Craig quadrant of Campbell County. The entry is rather cryptic, and I suspect but do not know for certain that their headstones do not list dates of birth or death, OR that there are no headstones there, but cemetery records show that they are buried there. ## APPENDIX TWO: THE FAMILY BIBLE RECORD OF HENRY D. KIDD of CAMPBELL AND BEDFORD COUNTIES, VA

In April of 2000, a Nedra A. Fields posted a transcription of the family Bible record of Henry D. Kidd of Bedford County, Virginia to the USGenWeb Archives. Her transcription was added to the web page containing Bible records of Bedford County, at <http://www.usgwarchives.net/va/bedford/bibles.htm> .

This collection of family data includes the dates of birth and/or death for Henry D. Kidd, each of his two wives, and for their 16 children. Equally or even more important, it lists the dates (but not the names, unfortunately) of birth and death for both his parents, and the names and dates of birth of Henry's six siblings. These data are a key component in helping us establish the identity of Henry D. Kidd's father, Henry Kidd of Buckingham County, Virginia.

We've been unable to contact Nedra A. Fields, to learn more about this family Bible, including its current location, or to secure her permission to use this information.

Below is the entirety of this information, copied from the USGenWeb page (URL above, active as of June 18, 2024).
